MEDIA ALERT

PALM SPRINGS AERIAL TRAMWAY REOPENING DATE MOVED TO OCTOBER 12

PALM SPRINGS, CA (September 26, 2024) Due to maintenance delays, the Palm Springs Aerial Tramway's reopening date has been rescheduled from Monday, October 7 to tentatively Saturday, October 12.

According to Vice President of Tramway Systems Chris Bartsch, "Due to a one-day weather delay and projects taking longer than anticipated, we had to make the unfortunate decision to delay our reopening by five days."

Adds Bartsch, "While we regret the inconvenience this may cause our guests, our number one goal is always the safe and reliable operation of the tram."
