MEDIA ALERT - Tramway Reopening

PALM SPRINGS, CA (May 4, 2026) – The Palm Springs Aerial Tramway will reopen today, Monday, May 4 following a closure on Sunday due to technical issues. The first tram up will be at 12:00 p.m., the last tram up will be at 8:00 p.m. and the last tram down will be at 9:30 p.m. Tram cars depart at least every 30 minutes.

According to Vice President of Tramway Systems Chris Bartsch, “On Sunday, our system identified a faulty circuit board, which has now been replaced. Out of an abundance of caution, we remained closed until thorough testing could be completed.”

We appreciate our patrons’ understanding during this temporary closure.
